

Quality, environment, occupational health and safety policy

The policy of the Libyan Iron and Steel Company is seeking to achieve:

- 1- Identify and understand the company's context by defining internal and external issues, the interested parties needs and dealing effectively with risks and opportunities.
- 2- Setting necessary plans to achieve customer requirements and meet relevant legal and regulatory requirements also ensure compliance with the requirements of relevant standards ISO 9001/2015, ISO 14001/2015, and ISO 45001/2018.
- 3- Adopt measurable and time bound objectives for activities relevant to quality, occupational health, safety and environment management after that periodically reviewing them and developing plans to achieve them.
- 4- Commitment to meet customer requirements and expectations, with periodical reviewing scheme, and adopting continuous improvement strategy to achieve them for effective implementation of quality, environment, occupational health, and safety systems.
- 5- Maintaining a safe and healthy workplace by identifying and evaluating risks, and take measures to prevent or reduce their impact, and commit to employees participation in developing occupational health and safety plans.
- 6- Implementation of continual improvement of environmental performance of the relevant company's activities, and protection from pollution, also conformity with relevant local laws & regulations , relevant environmental controls and the needs of interested parties'.
- 7- Awareness and training of employees and their participation to understand the quality, environment and occupational health and safety policy and achieve its objectives.
- 8- distribute the company's policy within the workplaces and ensure that its reach to customers, suppliers and interested parties.

Date: 01/11/2023

[8-9980-2-1-001]

Approval

Chairman